

HAMPTON, PHOEBUS AND OLD POINT.

MR. GOFFIGAN IS DEAD

York County's "Grand Old Man" Passes Away Here.

STROKE OF PARALYSIS FATAL

Funeral Services Will be Conducted at Smithfield Church This Afternoon at 3 O'clock—Deceased Was Leading Citizen of His County.

Mr. William E. Goffigan, a member of the Virginia legislature and the leading citizen of York county, died in his temporary apartment at the Augusta hotel at 4 o'clock yesterday morning. His death had been expected since last week.

The remains will be taken to his former home in York county this afternoon and the funeral services will occur from the Smithfield church at 3 o'clock today. The funeral party will leave the Augusta hotel at 1 o'clock.

Mr. Goffigan's death was due to a stroke of paralysis which he suffered while listening to Hon. William Hodges Mann close his campaign for governor in an address in the Hampton courthouse last Wednesday night.
Mr. Goffigan came here early that afternoon and was in high spirits up to the moment that the fatal stroke came upon him. He was sitting on a front seat in the courthouse, when he was seen to drop his head and before several persons could get to him he was unconscious. Mr. Goffigan received every attention possible, but he has since then remained in an unconscious state.

"Grand Old Man of York."

Mr. Goffigan was born in York county sixty-eight years ago. He conducted the mercantile business at Grafton and was known as the "grand old man of York." He was loved, honored and respected by all classes for his manly deportment and his splendid conception of honor. He served through the Confederate war and had a record that places him in the front rank of the brave Confederates.

Two years ago Mr. Goffigan, who had been the chairman of the Democratic party in York for many years, was petitioned to become the candidate for the legislature as the representative from York, Warwick, New Kent, Charles City and James City counties. He accepted the nomination with considerable reluctance and he served his constituents with satisfaction and credit. He was renominated three weeks ago by acclamation and would have been elected again in November.

POLICE OFFICERS ON THEIR ANNUAL CRUSADE

Dog Licenses Must be Paid, Weeds to be Cut Down and Bicycle Riding on Sidewalks Stopped.

City Sergeant Walter E. Owens and the police officers yesterday began the annual crusade against unlicensed dogs, weeds, and persons riding on the sidewalks with bicycles.

The mayor has issued an order to have all persons found riding on the sidewalks, either in the old or new section of the city, hauled before him and has promised the police officers that he will impose the severest penalty on all offenders from now on.
Mayor Jones said yesterday that the sidewalk bicycle riding had to cease.

Persons owning canines must take out license immediately or else be subjected to fines and also run the chance of having their dogs shot by the police officers.

Back yards must be cleaned up and weeds must be cut within the next ten days or else the mayor will have the delinquents face him in the police court for maintaining nuisance.

ELEVEN INNING GAME RESULTED IN A TIE

Smithfield and Fort Monroe Fought a Great Battle on Smithfield Diamond Yesterday.

The Fort Monroe baseball team went to Smithfield yesterday and fought the team of that village to a standstill in an eleven inning no score game. The contest was fast and snappy, but the artillerymen found that Smithfield was a fee worthy of their steel on the baseball diamond.
The trip was made on the tug Keoughman.

PRESTON STANTON LEAVES.

University Man Made Many Friends Among Hampton Fans.

Mr. Preston Stanton, who has been one of the best men on the Hampton Peninsula league baseball nine this season, left last evening for Leesburg, where he will visit for several days.
From Leesburg Mr. Stanton will go to Charlottesville to resume his studies at the University of Virginia.

Stanton has made a number of friends among the Hampton fans and he will be missed from the game hereafter. He has been used by Manager Hewins as a general utility man and was always in the game regardless of the position he covered.

MADE FINE APPEARANCE.

Hampton Fire Department Had Sixty Men Out for Drill Last Night.

The Hampton Fire department held a special drill and inspection last night preparatory to the coming session of the Virginia State Firemen's Association.

The laddies turned out more than sixty strong and the company made a splendid appearance. The West End hose, which recently consolidated with the Hampton department, had a big turn-out in the drill.

Tidewater Conference of the Church Comes to Hampton in 1910.

The Tidewater Conference of the Church of Christ, which held its annual convention in Portsmouth this year, has selected Hampton as the place of meeting for 1910 and August 2 as the date.

The convention will be in session a week and several hundred delegates are expected to be in attendance. The conference in Portsmouth was a most successful one.

Wanted "Petition of Separation."

Following the conviction of her husband, Richard Brooks on the charge of wife beating, Mary Brooks, his much abused spouse, made a dramatic demand of Mayor Thornton F. Jones, in the Hampton police court yesterday morning to grant her "a petition of separation." Mary said that she much desired freedom, but his honor told her that she would have to go to a higher court for the separation.

SHOOTING OF BOWERY HELD TO BE ACCIDENTAL

Mayor Furness Hears Wounded Man's Statement and Dismisses Charge Against Tillman.

After hearing a statement from Percy Bowery, who was shot several weeks ago by P. Trevillian Tillman, of Richmond, in a saloon in Phoebus, Mayor L. P. Furness yesterday dismissed the charge against Tillman on the ground that the shooting was accidental. Tillman immediately returned to his home in Richmond. He was represented by Messrs. W. H. Power and F. S. Collier.

The shooting occurred while Tillman and Bowery were out together and the men claim that it was purely accidental. Bowery was shot through the liver and is yet unable to leave the Dixie hospital, although he is rapidly recovering.

Tillman is a prominent member of several secret organizations and spent two years at the University of Virginia studying medicine. His father was a merchant in Charlottesville.

FIGUREHEAD TO BE INSTALLED AT CAPITOL

Navy Department Will Present Virginia With Battleship Namesake's Cast Off Ornament.

RICHMOND, VA., Aug. 9.—In response to a request made by Adjutant-general Anderson several days ago, that the government naval authorities present to this State the figurehead of the battleship Virginia, the adjutant-general this morning received notice from the acting secretary of the navy, Beckman Withrop stating that the request has been granted and the necessary arrangements are being made at Norfolk for the shipping of the figurehead to this city.

Several weeks ago an order was issued from the navy department in Washington that the figureheads on the bows of all battleships be removed, as it had been found that they interfered with the line of fire of some of the big guns. It was stated at that time that some of the states after whom the battleships had been named would seek to obtain these figure-heads as exhibits for the State capitol.
Adjutant-general Anderson accordingly applied for the Virginia figurehead.

Story of Killing.

COVINGTON, VA., Aug. 9.—The killing of Thomas M. Rinehart by Al Carter, alias Al Raner, occurred at Alberton, Md., in April, 1908. Rinehart was a son of W. A. Rinehart, of Covington, Va., and a member of the firm of Rinehart, Dennis and Company, Washington, D. C., railroad contractors.

Carter was employed by Rinehart in tunnel work at Alberton. Carter persistently refused to work and was told to leave by Rinehart. Carter told Rinehart he would leave immediately, but instead concealed himself in the brush and waylaid Rinehart, firing several shots. Rinehart died in Hampton several hours later.

Carter escaped, but detectives have been on the lookout for him for the past three years. One thousand and fifty dollars is offered for his arrest.

HELD FOR MURDER.

Al. Carter, Richmond Negro, Arrested in New Haven, Conn.

NEW HAVEN, CONN., Aug. 9.—Al Carter, alias Al Raner, the Richmond, Va., negro wanted for the murder of the rich railroad contractor, Thomas M. Rinehart, of Covington, Va., was arrested this morning as he was about to board an outbound trolley car at the busiest corner of the city.

The man is held on the technical charge of being a fugitive from justice.

The man admits that his name is Raney and that he knows that Rinehart was murdered in cold blood at Dorsey Run, Md., on April 7, 1908.
Raney was well supplied with whiskey, dice and money. It required three detectives to handle him.

Outlook for Cotton Better.

(By Associated Press.)
WYCO, TEXAS, Aug. 9.—The situation regarding cotton has changed materially because of rains throughout the state. It is now believed the yield will be considerably larger than had been expected. Cotton has about ceased growing and the outlook the most encouraging in many years.

Johnson's Condition Unchanged.

The condition of Charlie Johnson, the negro who was shot by Cornelius Stewart, also colored, Friday, remains unchanged and little hope of his recovery is entertained by physicians.
The ball which entered his side has not been located as the man's physical condition would not permit of an operation. Yesterday afternoon he seemed to be weaker if there was any change.

On Auto Trip in New Hampshire, Capt. and Mrs. Frank W. Darling, Master J. S. Darling, Mr. and Mrs.
J. B. Pressy and Miss Harriette Pressy left yesterday for an automobile trip through New Hampshire.
The party will first go to Baltimore on steamer and will then proceed to Keene, N. H., where they will remain several weeks.
